

FANTASIA

The name speaks for itself; if you have a need for Promotional Products that are out of the ordinary, FANTASIA would be the answer to your needs.

With close to 10 years experience and supported by its parent company CNIJ, who has over 20 years of innovative ideas in the Promotional industry and along side our sister company Ad-N-Art. Fantasia has rapidly grown into a multi-million dollar company. We now have over 100 employees. We have the pleasure of producing unique gifts for a number of companies; some names as prestigious as Ford Motors, Corona beer, Shell, UPS and more. With over 50,000 distributors across North America, we can cater to all different sizes of companies and events, be it special souvenir mementos at a wedding or baptism, graduation, or even a sporting event, we can definitely address your needs.

Founded by David Pisarevsky and Pini Abecassis; both jewelers then, with a reputation for creative designs. David and Pini decided to combine their knowledge in high quality craftsmanship and unique designs to cater to a growing need in custom made items for all types of events. They have decided to create special unique items which would help preserve special moments.

The Company has quickly realized the need to "Go Green" and has implemented every effort to provide our clients with Eco Friendly Products.

Actively involved in the community, following charity events or cancer awareness, Fantasia prides itself in trying to make a difference and continues to be involved for a better future.

Fantasia carries an array of innovative products. We have also expanded our Product line and introduced the Organic Personal Care Products, which has become one of our most sought after products, next to our unique & most diversified choice of quality pens.

In a constant effort to provide our clients with the best possible service and alternatives to the traditional way, we also provide Custom Products Sourcing. With an office in China, we can source any item your imagination can come up with. Although we carry many Imported Items Fantasia also carries a multitude of stock items which can be shipped within 5 to 10 business days.

We invite you to visit our NEW & Exciting website @ WWW.fantasiainc.com to find out more.

We are confident that after just one visit, you will soon see how our products and services would be a great value to you.

Fantasia Fun and Affordable products!