

Hi Tara

Hi Tara

I just wanted to let you know how happy I was both with ProRose and with your drink clips. I love this item, and have been pitching it to brides and grooms for years, but have never actually sold one before this order. As a low cost, extra favor, it can't be beat, and with the economy the way it is, I bet lots of couples will choose this over more expensive, less practical favors.

From research, to production to final receipt of product, dealing with ProRose was a wonderful experience. All of my questions were answered swiftly and positively. The proofing was quick and accurate. You honored my request to fill and bill for quantity requested (no overruns were billed out, but I suspect there might have been a few thrown in!) The finished product was well crafted, well printed and quickly delivered.

Overall this was a wonderful ASI experience. I hope I have many more clients who chose this product so that I can do more business with your wonderful company.

Thanks

Lonnie
